Council Plans Payroll Tax In New Castle

First Steps Toward Imposing Payroll Tax Taken At Session Today

RATE PROPOSED
75 CENTS ON $100

Every person employed in New Castle would be taxed 7½ mills on every dollar he is paid according to a resolution submitted in city council meeting Monday in city hall, by Jos. D. Alexander, property director.

The resolution states that it is the intention of the city to adopt an ordinance calling for such a tax.

Eliminate Two Other Taxes

According to council the city proposes to eliminate the personal or occupational tax and also the mercantile tax.

The decision to impose the 7½ mills tax on payrolls is for the purpose of lowering the property tax, yet providing sufficient money to operate the city government.

Philadelphia now has a similar tax. However, other cities which propose a payroll tax have been combatted and the question is now before the state supreme court as to its legality.

In discussing the resolution, Finance Director Albert Hoyland said:

"The purpose of the new tax is to relieve the property tax. We need more revenue to operate the city. If it is held illegal the city will be required to raise the millage, probably 2½ mills. (The 1947 millage is 13).

The payroll in the city is estimated at $40,000,000.

Many Not Residents

According to Mayor John F. Haven, there are many persons employed in the city of New Castle who do not contribute to its upkeep, and a payroll tax will cause them to help bear the burden.

According to council the cost of (Continued on Page Nineteen)

Pa Newc Observes

Newly opened route 18 from Walmo toward New Wilmington was well travelled over the weekend. The new three and four lane highway is a fine job, and the new grades eliminate practically all curves, and also provide only slight grades where there were formerly steeper ones.

Pa Newc is rather mystified by the large number of motorists travelling the new route 422, between New Castle and the Ohio state line, that are apparently obliged to drive off the wide concrete pavement onto the berm. There are scores of tracks along the new road, showing where some motorist was off the concrete.

This district escaped the winter which struck parts of the middle-west over the week-end, weather conditions on Sunday being of the mild November day type.

Christmas stars have already been placed in the mails, and the annual campaign of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Association is now in full swing.

Many local hunters, who have camps on the property of George Moore, of near Nebraska, Forest county, will learn with regret that fire destroyed Mr. Moore's home last week. John Scott, of this city, was at the scene when the fire occurred, and with other hunters who were in the vicinity, were able to help save most of the furniture on the first floor. Had it not been for hunting season, everything would have been lost, as there are few people residing in the neighborhood were Mr. Moore lives.

Food Allocation Plan Is Given To Congress

By WILLIAM THEIS (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The Truman administration gave Congress today its broad food allocation program and asked for stand-by price and rationing controls if allocation fails to curb inflation.

Eight categories of foodstuffs as well as farm machinery, fertilizer, rail facilities and tin were marked for allocation in President Truman's detailed proposal.

Allocations Needed
An Agriculture department official, recommending wartime-like powers as "preferable," outlined to the point economic committee this breakdown of food essentials if allocation fails to curb inflation.

Grain and grain products; rice and rice products; dry beans and peas; fats and oils including oil bearing materials, fatty acids, soap and soap powder, but not petroleum; livestock, poultry and their products; and milk and milk products.

The program on allocation and inventory control was laid down by Carl C. Farnington, assistant administrator of production and marketing. He told the committee headed by Sen. Taft (R) Ohio: "The department proposes to do all it can through voluntary measures."

Urges Agreement On Austrian Peace

Austrian Foreign Minister Says Such Action Would Put End To War Talk

By THOMAS C. WATSON (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Austrian Foreign Minister Karl Gruber made a fervent appeal today to the big four powers to reach an agreement on Austria's peace treaty and thus turn the world from "fear to faith in the future."

In an exclusive interview with International News Service on the eve of the London conference of big four foreign ministers, the Austrian statesman declared agreement on the peace pact would "put an end to talk about war, and bring a great ray of hope to the world." Gruber made his appeal as the stage was set with the arrival in London of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov for the opening tomorrow of what history believes will be one of the most fateful international conferences in history.

Through the pea-soup fog of pessimism that pervades the British capital concerning the outcome of this conference, Gruber shot a "very light" of bright prospects for the world, provided the foreign ministers would agree to reconcile their differences over Austria.

Farmers Are Asked To Plant Nine Million More Acres In U.S. Next Year

By WILLIAM L. UMSTEAD (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The government called on the nation's farmers today to plant nine million more acres in 1948 but set lower livestock goals which will take 13 pounds of meat per person off the family table next year.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson asked all-out production of grains to help feed hungry foreign countries and to keep domestic consumption high. His announcement was accompanied by these developments:

1. The Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations revealed that the United States fell far below Russia in the combined production of bread grains, wheat and rye, this year.

French Premier Seeks To Halt Wave Of Strikes

French Labor Steps Up Wave Of Communist Incited Strikes Regardless

FEAR PARALYSIS OF FRENCH ECONOMY

By ROBERT PARKER (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Nov. 24.—French labor stepped up its wave of Communist incited strikes today despite Premier Robert Schuman's pledge that his new non-Communist government would face the crisis with decisive action and a minimum of talk.

Walkouts by railway men, dockers and other workers in many fields of industry mounted hourly after the premier's statement. French police moved to alleviate the railroad strike gripping the capital and other sections of the country.

Gendarmes Take Over

Gendarmes took over the Gare du Nord (North Station), and non-striking workers immediately got traffic moving on a limited scale. At the same time, police reinforcements were sent to the prefecture near the Gare du Lyon.

Heavily-armed mobile guard units already have been alerted in key cities throughout the country.

The railway situation was confused. While the union made claims that all traffic will be halted, authorities said early returns from the referendum of workers indicates the majority oppose a strike.

Fear Strike May Spread

Fears remained, however, that the rail strike may extend still further and—combined with the spreading SOC strikes—threaten (Continued on Page Two)

U. N. Assembly Session Near Adjournment

By PIERRE J. HUSS (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 24.

The United Nations general assembly prepared today to transform the 57-nation Palestine committee into a "special assembly" with power to take final action on the Holy Land.

The move is contemplated in order to permit scheduled adjournment of the general assembly itself before Thanksgiving.

With the exception of the Palestine deliberations, the 1947 session of the assembly is at an end.

The general assembly as such is marking time today in the hope of receiving the majority report on Palestine from the committee.

Most of the leading delegates have their bags packed for departure within the week.

The Palestine committee ran into deeper and deeper complications over the week-end in efforts to ride through Arab opposition on partition and British amnesty on enforcement of such a measure.

The result is that one amendment after another cropped up to delay the approach to a majority solution, with the Arabs and the Jews sitting on the side-lines, each group anxiously hoping for the swing of the tide in their favor.

Proclamation

All residents of the City of New Castle are urged to support the Christmas Seal Sale of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Association. The seal sale, to raise funds for the tuberculosis control program of the association, opens today and continues until Christmas.

"Because of its communicable nature, tuberculosis must be recognized as a public health problem of grave concern to every member of the community," the mayor said in issuing the proclamation. "Every hidden case must be found if we are to prevent the spread of this insidious disease." We can find these hidden cases if we co-operate with the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Association in its case finding program.

Therefore, I, the mayor of the City of New Castle do recommend that the people of New Castle show their hardy approval of the work of the association in the interest of our health by the generous purchase of Christmas seals.

Signed
MAYOR JOHN F. HAVEN,
Mayor of New Castle.

Marshall Will Not Tolerate Parley Being Red Sounding Board

By KINGSBURY SMITH (European General Manager, International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 24.—An American spokesman said today that the conference of Big Four foreign ministers will be short-lived if Russia attempts to turn the parley into a sounding board for intensification of its political warfare against the United States.

The spokesman is a leading member of the American delegation to the conference opening tomorrow. He predicted that Secretary of State Marshall might walk out and return home within two weeks if it becomes apparent that there is no hope of obtaining a sound basis for agreement with Russia on the Austrian and German problems.

No Diplomatic Cockpit

Marshall is said to be determined not to permit this conference to develop into a verbal diplomatic cockpit for the benefit of Soviet propaganda.

The American statesman intends to reiterate early in the conference America's position in respect to the nature of the issues involved in the German and Austrian peace settlements.

If it appears there is a chance of getting a satisfactory agreement, Marshall will, according to delega-

Demands Assurances On Use Of Stopgap Aid

By FRANK B. ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Sen. Wherry (R-Neb.), senate majority whip, prefaced debate on the stopgap foreign aid bill today with a demand for assurances that the 597 million dollars will not be misused for "non-democratic politics" in western Europe.

Wherry said this is the question he will ask when Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich.), chairman of the foreign relations committee, opens consideration of the interim assistance bill at noon today. Leaders on both sides hope to approve and send the legislation to the house by Wednesday night, then recess over the Thanksgiving week-end.

At the same time, the senate ap-

Indictment Of Maj. Gen. Meyers Will Be Sought

Senate Investigators Also Intensify Search For War Time Fraud

By CHARLES B. SEIB (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Senate investigators intensified today their search for fraud by wartime military spenders as the Justice Department rushed preparations to seek indictment of Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers on seven counts carrying prison terms of 39 years.

While federal attorneys drew up evidence against Meyers for presentation to a federal grand jury within the next few days, Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.), chairman of the War Investigating subcommittee which probed the financial and love affairs of the former army officer, announced:

"Our investigators are going ahead in gathering evidence indicative of fraud any place they can find it."

Ferguson virtually promised that the committee will not rest until "all of the corruption, all of the fraud, all of the inefficiency" (Continued on Page Nineteen)

Dayton Herald Says Mrs. Lamaree Plans Slander Suit

DAYTON, O., Nov. 24.—(INS)—The Dayton Herald stated today in a copyrighted story that Mrs. Mildred Lamaree will file a slander suit against Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers because of the general's statement that he had a wartime love affair with her.

Mrs. Lamaree, in an exclusive interview with Herald newsmen Jack Vincent, stated she had instructed her attorney, Robert Kneel, to file the suit.

She did not disclose how much would be asked, but from other sources it was learned that the sum may be as much as a half million dollars.

In the Herald story, Mrs. Lamaree was quoted as saying that all of Meyers' statements reflecting on her honor "comprised barefaced lies."

Stormy Opening Of London Parley Of Big Four Seen

Controversy Predicted Over Whether German Or Austrian Treaty Is Taken Up

DULLES ARRIVES TO AID MARSHALL

By KINGSBURY SMITH (European General Manager, International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A stormy opening was predicted today for the conference of Big Four foreign ministers who meet Tuesday for a new attempt to reach a decision on the futures of both Germany and Austria.

American Secretary of State Marshall, Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov and British Foreign Secretary Bevin completed last-minute preparations for the parley while awaiting the arrival in London of French Foreign Minister Bidault.

Bidault, who was retained in his former post in the new French cabinet, announced early today, is expected to reach the British capital sometime later in the day.

Dulles Arrives

Among the latest arrivals in London for the parley was Republican Foreign Expert John Foster Dulles who will serve as an adviser to Marshall.

An immediate verbal clash between Soviet Russia and the western powers was forecast over the issue of whether the German or Austrian problem should be given first consideration.

Russia wants the conference to start discussing Germany, especially the procedure for preparation of a German peace treaty.

Montana Has Slight Quake

Recalls Serious Earthquake In Area In 1935—Many Persons Flee Homes

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 24.—(INS)—Nothing more serious than broken plaster and windows was reported today following Montana's most severe earthquake since 1935.

Butte and several western Montana cities were shaken at 2:46 a. m. yesterday, awakening thousands of persons who fled their homes. The major tremor lasted about ten seconds, with subsequent shocks of less intensity continuing for almost an hour.

The quake was felt at Kalispell, Great Falls, Bozeman, Helena, Billings, Missoula and in the upper Anker river valley of eastern Idaho.

Dr. Stephen W. Niles, seismologist for Montana School of Mines, awaited reports from throughout the state to determine the center of the quake.

In 1935 a severe shock caused widespread damage and some destruction.

Denver, Nov. 24.—The Regis college seismograph in Denver showed separate recordings following reports of a tremor in Montana.

The Rev. Joseph V. Downey, seismologist, said a major quake was recorded just before time of the Montana disturbance. The first, he said, apparently was centered about 2,000 miles south of Denver and its effect on the instrument made reading of the "smaller" shock difficult.

Braddock Choir Presents Program On Sunday Night

First Congregational church was filled to capacity Sunday night November 23 to hear the Braddock choir present a sacred concert. Under the direction of Evan Lloyd the choir presented one of the most satisfying sacred concerts heard in New Castle in years.

The choir is a mixed one, with about 45 voices. Mr. Lloyd has brought the group of singers to a high point of quality and the work Sunday night was well done. Oratorio classics were on the program, the works of Haydn, Mendelssohn, Gounod and Handel, other numbers by Sargent, Rhys-Ford, Maunder and Robertson added to the pleasure of the concert but over it all was the competency of the director Mr. Lloyd. He seems to implant in his singers a musical soul. Interpretation, attack and release all of them were well done and the large audience was delighted.

Mrs. John M. Evans was at the organ and Nellie E. Lloyd and Rose Seng at the piano. Upon behalf of the audience Rev. Thomas J. Jones expressed the appreciation of all the excellent concert.

tion sources, be prepared to stay six or eight weeks.

Marshall May Leave

If, on the other hand, Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov starts off by blasting the United States and accuses the American government of attempting to use Germany as a base for imperialism in Europe, Marshall soon will pack his bags and go home.

Meanwhile, Molotov took the initiative in seeking the first news conference and private meetings with both Marshall and British Foreign Secretary Bevin.

He is seeing Bevin late in the afternoon and will visit Marshall tonight.

Molotov's quick request for private talks with Bevin and Marshall before the conference opens led to speculation in some delegation circles that Russia might possibly have a new plan in mind for breaking the deadlock—at least over the question of the agenda.

In this connection it became known definitely that Bevin plans to play the role of mediator in the conference.

Police seizure of the Paris North Station was looked upon as possibly giving impetus to the wave of rail stoppages.

While it is considered likely that strikers will permit the movement of food trains, authorities took special precautions to ensure that sufficient quantities of milk, fruits, vegetables and meats are trucked into Paris.

Stoppages of rail traffic occurred at Sete, Nimes, Montpellier and Lens.

Vote For Strike
At Lorient, dockers, stokers and refrigeration workers voted in favor of a strike. Dockers at Caen, Le Havre and Bordeaux also struck.

Metal, textile, chemical and construction workers at Lyon are voting on whether to strike. Construction work at Lyon already is virtually at a standstill.

Paris was further beset by a spreading strike of postal, telephone and telegraph service employees. Offices of eight different districts were affected as well as the Louvre central office and 11 suburban offices.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Oestreicher, INS Foreign Director

Always a city of amazing contrasts—luxury and slums, irrepressible gaiety and the blackest, gloomiest fogs known to mankind—London is slated for what may be a grim new role Tuesday when the council of foreign ministers assembles.

The contrast between this knock-down and drag-out diplomatic struggle and the post-wedding "hangover" that still persists in Britain's capital is outstandingly obvious far in advance.

Deadlock To Persist

There are few observers, indeed who are optimistic enough to predict any breaking of the deadlock between east and west.

There are few even who anticipate any lessening of the tension. Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov is flying in from a Moscow where newsstands are dripping over with publications lashing out against alleged American and British "warmongers."

If anything, this campaign of vilification has increased rather than diminished since Secretary of State Marshall, who already is in London, announced that the time had come to "put a stop to it."

And the Russians are so enamored of their controversial and openly anti-American Belgrade Cominform that they are going ahead with plans for a counterpart of it in the American hemisphere.

Final Understanding Effort
Ostensibly the purpose of the meeting is to get on with peace treaties for Germany and Austria, decide upon the future of Italian colonies and break up the logjam which threatens Europe with its unrelenting winter since 1939.

But it appears more likely that the conference is to concern itself with a final attempt to determine whether there is any bridge of understanding between western democratic aims and Soviet desires.

At the moment, its deliberations are unexpectedly complicated by the political crisis in France.

This was brought about by Communist party strike pressure. But once again it will give the representatives of Russia's dictatorship a chance to use the same old arguments against the alleged weakness and deficiencies of the democratic system—the charge that the world cannot know from one day to the next just who is in power and why.

It is an inevitable totalitarian argument. And Molotov can be expected to disclaim blandly any responsibility of the Cominform, attributing it to a so-called "democratic" manifestation by the people themselves against "western aggression."

The London conference may achieve some successes. But if so, it will be in spite of current conditions rather than because of them.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

More than a quarter of a century ago I was a cub reporter in Oakland, Cal.

I was in my early twenties and my city editor seemed like quite an old man to me. He must have been at least 35—and you know how old that seems to a youngster.

Our ways parted, and I didn't hear from him until I received a letter last week.

It was from that same city editor.

I won't mention his name, because maybe he doesn't want it known that, as he writes, he will be 62 years old next April.

Now, after more than 25 years, 62 doesn't seem as old as 35 did then, but it's told enough to make yourself just a few years younger when people ask your age. So let the name remain unknown.

In his letter he mentioned some of the fellows with whom I worked in those days.

Some have become famous. Some died. Some fell by the wayside.

But the mention of their names brought some of the happiest memories of my life back to me—and it made me realize how time has flown and how old I, too, am getting to be.

Life, to my friend, has brought about the average array of joys and sorrows.

It hasn't been an exciting sort of life; he has not reached any particular heights of success, but, according to him, "despite its disappointments, life, my lad, is still good."

And, in the following paragraph, he sums up his whole philosophy of life—a philosophy that, regarding his bank account, marks him as an eminently successful man.

With that sort of philosophy every one of us can be successful. With that sort of philosophy there can be no such thing as failure. With that sort of philosophy, age has no threats and life may be enjoyed to the fullest to the very last day.

"Just to be alive," he writes, "to be in good health, just to have a few friends who smile and say hello with a clasp of friendship's hand, just to watch the flowers, the shrubs, the Godly trees grow and blossom, is the Alpha and Omega of life."

Can you add anything to that? Can you suggest a better way to get everything that is to be gotten out of life?

Every single item in that list of things which comprise Life to my friend is yours to enjoy.

Every one of them is yours, regardless of position, bank account and social standing.

Check that list. How many of its treasures do you possess? Perhaps you are richer than you think.

(Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Words Of Wisdom

For my part, I am not so sure at bottom that man is, as he says, the king of nature; he is far more its devastating tyrant. I believe he has many things to learn from animal societies, older than his own of infinite variety.—Romain Rolland.

It's getting to the embarrassing point in this country where a public figure has reason to feel somewhat unpatriotic unless he's been named by Andrei Vishinsky as a warmonger.—New York World-Telegram.

U. S. Shift To Power Politics

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 24.

—The idea persists here that the "unwritten" story of the winter is the Administration's sudden shift to power politics as a basic for foreign policy.

The story is not exactly unwritten, the action is not exactly sudden and the policy is not exactly a shift. But it is enough of all three to command attention. To use a pair of familiar terms, the Marshall plan has been married to the Truman doctrine. To put it another way, bread is to be served with bayonets.

Idea Slowly Dawning
This idea has been slowly dawning ever since they heard the President's message. He caught many of them by surprise when he requested something approaching wartime powers. Now they are beginning to understand why he had the political hardihood to identify himself with a return to price-fixing and a consumer-rationing.

And why he had the supreme boldness—considering how much he needs labor support in next year's election—to demand a ceiling on wages.

But all this fits into the power politics picture. It takes no great amount of imagination to put a finger on the President's purposes. The creeping paralysis of world-wide Communism is no longer considered the real danger. Everywhere, except behind the iron curtain, nations are turning toward conservative government. Our job is to prevent the Russian stage hands from moving the iron curtain forward. The real and immediate threat is represented in the Red Army. That is what the administration now believes, and that is why the administration has turned to power politics.

Power Politics Idea
Power politics is a short-of-war policy. It is not a game at which American diplomats have ever been adept. It is an Old World pastime. Power politics wears striped trousers and sometimes a monocle. It carries a brief case and sometimes an umbrella. The background music is produced by sword-rattling, "incidents" are used as counter-irritants for war, objectives are gained by threats, by bluffs, and, b'gad, sir.

The big risk in such a game is evident. There is always the danger of miscalculating the opponent's ability or willingness to fight. Both the Kaiser and the Fuehrer wrong-guessed the U. S. in these matters and dragged us into war. Our experts today insist that Russia will not or cannot fight for another five years. By that time it is hoped that we shall have all the cards and shall have won the game. But experts can be wrong.

No Way of Backing Out
Once we are committed to the game of power politics, we have no "honorable"—a favorite adjective of power politicians—way of backing out. Whatever happens, we must save "face". It may be fairly asked why the Administration has chosen to play such a game. The answer is that no one here in authority has any faith in the United Nations as an agency to settle international quarrels. Or, to put it another way, no one here believes that Russia will abide by a U. N. decision that goes hard against her interests. In any event, we are already "ankle deep" in the "Greek incident" and wading deeper. We may soon be wading in elsewhere in southern Europe, in the Middle East, in China and Korea. But these sideshows are to be played out only because of their effect upon the main show. It is in Germany, where the Red Army is firmly dug in, that the real stakes of the power politics game are stacked.

And here is our greatest gamble. Somewhere and some time a situation will arise in which we invite the Red Army to remove itself from Europe. Such a situation has its making in the Big Four foreign ministers meeting this month at London. They story behind the German gamble requires separate space, but an over-simplification is this:

When invited to pull out, the Red Army may do so. Or it may not.

One Man's Opinion
By Walter Kiernan

We have shipped 12 million dollars worth of locomotives to Poland. . . it seems that the Poles never have been able to run on time.

But Poland should be grateful to the Soviet for saving them from the Nazis who might have dominated the country like the Soviet.

(If these paragraphs seem unclear at times please remember they are following the natural terrain of international politics.)

Anyway things are clearing up in Washington. . . the Republicans may not give Mr. Truman everything he wants but most Democrats are satisfied with anything they get from a Republican.

The President was not so naive as to believe he could please everyone with his program. . . there are parts of it he doesn't like himself.

But even as give thanks anyway for the dove of peace still isn't fat enough for anyone to kill.

Great Game Of Politics

Belatedly Kicking Loose

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The belated and painful effort of the Democratic national managers to kick themselves loose from the Communist leaders in New York who have fastened themselves on the party has not had the attention it deserves nor been as widely appreciated as it should. It is of real significance in that it possibly may mark the end of a period during which many real Democrats all over the country have been exceedingly unhappy and ashamed.

WHEN, in 1933, Mr. Roosevelt's New Deal swung the Democratic party away from its traditional principles and very far to the left, it was not possible to foresee its open alliance with the Communists. That gradually became clear after the White House-CIO political partnership was consolidated. As, even in its earliest days, the large-scale Communist infiltration of the CIO was an admitted fact, that partnership opened the door for a considerable Communist infiltration of the Government. A lot of Communists got on the Federal pay roll in those days and, despite the attempts to clear them out, quite a lot remain.

UNDOUBTEDLY capture by the Communists of some of the larger CIO unions gave them a considerable influence in the Democratic party, but it was their capture of the American Labor party of New York that put them in a position of actual Democratic dominance in our greatest State. There never has been any denial of the Communist control of the ALP. Before 1940 the anti-Communists in the organization pulled out and formed the so-called "Liberal party". But, up to the time of his death, the late Sidney Hillman, chairman of the CIO's Political Action Committee, was also chairman of the American Labor party. Then, as now, it was Communist controlled.

FROM the start, the ALP Communists, with unstinted enthusiasm, embraced the New Deal, lauded its muddled economic theories and made a hero of Mr. Roosevelt on the fairly well-founded assumption that they were all going in the same direction. In two presidential campaigns—1940 and 1944—by polling more than 400,000 votes—the ALP demonstrated what was accepted as its indispensability to the Democrats. The figures seemed to make it clear that the Democrats stood no chance of carrying New York in either gubernatorial, senatorial or presidential elections without the 400,000—and more—ALP votes. In consequence, for more than six years the Democratic state and national leaders have cringed and bowed to this Communist-controlled agency, permitting its bosses to dictate nominations and exert an unprecedented power in political conferences.

IT HAS been a disgraceful and degrading performance. Certainly it reflects no credit upon the two Presidents who permitted it. The apologetic determination now to end the servile dependence upon the New York Communist organization, which has marked Democratic strategy in recent years, is a heartening sign, no matter how far it falls short of complete success nor how little conviction is involved. The essential fact is that for the first time in six years a Democratic voice has been raised not only against American Labor party dominance, but against American Labor party support. Recently repudiation statements have come not only from the Democratic boss of the Bronx, Mr. Eddie Flynn, and Tammany Leader Sampson, but from the National Democratic Committee chairman, Mr. McGrath, who will direct the 1948 campaign.

OF COURSE, it is pointed out, this repudiation in both late and forced. The anti-Communist sentiment in the country has increased so tremendously since 1946 that even a half-witted politician can appreciate that the support of a Communist-controlled organization, though worth 400,000 votes, would now be far more of a liability than an asset—particularly as the Republican publicity already is daily driving home the Democratic-Communist link. The repudiation had to be made to avoid being placed damagingly on the defensive. There is also the argument that repudiation by no means will cost the Democrats all these 400,000 votes in New York.

IN the first place, though the ALP machine is Communist controlled a large percentage of ALP members, while radicals, are not Communists. In the second place, no matter how hard they are kicked, they still will vote Democratic next time because they simply cannot vote Republican—and a third party is not really feasible. But, no matter what the motive and regardless of these cost calculations, the repudiation is the important thing. It rescues the Democratic party from an indefensible position. It measurably restores its self-respect. It encourages the hope that soon the time may come when the cheap CIO demagogues still in the "inner circles" of the national party management, where they pass on candidates and policies, may be repudiated, too. It would be fine to see the party clean again.

GOD'S PROMISES TO HAGAR AND ABRAHAM

The citizens of Great Britain and particularly the government of Great Britain have always regarded the Suez Canal as the "life-line" of the Empire. Well, that together with Gibraltar and the Island of Malta made the Mediterranean and the Canal an open road to India and Great Britain's other Asiatic possessions pretty safe.

India has been a large star in the British Empire. When Disraeli formally opened the Canal he bestowed upon Queen Victoria the title of "Empress of India" and that title has continued to the day when Great Britain announced she was retiring from India and bestowing India upon the Moslems and the Hindus. To protect the Canal, Great Britain virtually took over all of Egypt and at the close of World War I assumed the control of Palestine.

Hints On Etiquette

The Timid Soul

EUROPEAN COMPLAINT

Many observers believe there is something symptomatic in the charge by a London newspaper that a subcommittee of Senators in Great Britain and on the continent trying to review economic conditions over there are guilty of snooping.

The criticism is said to have been made by the London Star, and its attitude was called by Senator Bridges and other visiting Americans "impertinent." Senator Dworshak dryly remarked that "when the United States has dumped out some $19,000,000,000 to countries since V-J Day it is time some members of Congress did some snooping to find out where the money went."

If this critical remark by the London newspaper were an isolated case it would hardly be worth dwelling upon, but many Americans who have been in Great Britain come home with the remark that the British resent the fact that we are coming out of the war better off economically than they did. Just how much better off we are is a matter of opinion, and sometimes we wonder when we think of that 275-billion national debt.

Of course, the prime purpose of the Congressmen in Europe is not to learn what has become of the nineteen billions but to try to discover just what Europe needs from here on. This is especially important at a time when many internationalists think we ought to spend another 20 billions to keep Europe going.

But the Europeans don't like this investigation, and the principal reason they don't like it is that they prefer themselves to handle the relief which we send them without any strings attached. They did pretty well with the first 19 billions we sent them—that is, pretty well from their own standpoint. Much of the relief was used to perpetuate themselves in office, and in a great many instances they took personal credit for the relief and Uncle Sam wasn't even given a polite "thank you."

All of which brings up the important question as to who is going to turn the spigot off and on under the Marshall Plan. None of us want Europeans or Asiatics to starve, but we have a right—despite a contrary opinion by many European politicians—to see that our funds are spent wisely and the relief distributed efficiently.

But look out for cries from across the Atlantic that by insisting on seeing where our money goes we are "interfering" in the affairs of Europe.

TOO MUCH TURNOVER?

Irving Berlin has been hanging songs together for a great many years, and some persons think he did a splendid job when he came up with "White Christmas." Bing Crosby is a singer with a following and when he popularized the song he brought joy and happiness to his listeners.

But there are people who wish the song had never been written. Repetition can become tiresome. Formerly it was the custom to get Thanksgiving and football and turkey out of the way and take a breather before thinking about Christmas. Then "Jingle Bells" and "Silent Night" were turned on.

But since "White Christmas" was popularized it has been hurled at the public morning, noon and night. Hot weather had not ended when the tonsil brigade began to dream about a white Christmas. But not all of those who were tired of the heat wanted a snowstorm.

Singers seem to love "White Christmas." They are just as likely to spring it in August as later. They start on Labor Day to emit it without a pause.

The song is beautiful when it is sung by singers instead of by hotcha juke box artists. This latter element seems to be convinced it has a bawl in calf-like tones when giving with this piece. After weeks of this constant mourning over a white Christmas, it is easy to become converted to the ranks of those who never liked Irving Berlin's opuses anyway.

Nobody wants to hear even the old masters constantly, at least not without variation.

THE GAP CLOSSES

Submarineers, who poked along under water at four or five knots during the last war, must be a little starry-eyed when they ponder Admiral Blandy's speech before the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers in New York.

The admiral, who commands the Atlantic Fleet and who directed the Navy's atomic bomb experiments at Bikini, really gave them something to think about.

"In theory," he said, "atomic power can drive a submarine of our World War II type at 30 knots, submerged, for a year without refueling."

Discussing the Navy's research into atomic power as a source of ship propulsion, Admiral Blandy gave no real indication of how small is the gap between theory and practice, but he did make one rather startling remark. "I doubt if we will see those specifications met in 1947," he said.

The end of 1947 is little more than a month away.

Europe used to despise us because we had no money, and now she hates us because we have most of the money.

BILIOUS

Old people talk about being bilious. They mean that they do not feel very well.

They have a poor appetite. They may have a little head ache or feel a little dizzy.

The old idea was to blame it on the bile or the liver and call it biliousness.

The liver or the bile are probably not to blame at all. There are many things which cause people to feel bad.

If these spells occur very often, it might be well to have a check up and try to find the real cause.

Socialized liver pills and laxatives are not always good to take for what ails you.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

This will be a short week, at least for the schools . . . Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, then Thanksgiving. Sometimes that is all right, suppose it's all right always with the students . . . the parents of the grade school children students sometimes find it difficult to entertain or keep out of the road of the children when they have these vacations. It won't be very long until Christmas vacation rolls around . . . in fact, there are only 25 more days of shopping time until you'll all be sitting under the tree.

Let's not get too excited now and jump over into Christmas before we have Thanksgiving, and this Thanksgiving should be a Thanksgiving that we could stop and think about . . . a time not just to say "maybe some people have something to be thankful for but I certainly don't".

Everyone, yes everyone, has something to be thankful for, or to give thanks. Maybe you didn't win a quiz program, maybe you didn't even win a football parlay, but you go home tonight and sit down and think how much better off you are than somebody else you know. You are thankful you are and not somebody else . . . right . . . if you are honest with yourself you know we are right. Maybe you are thankful that you live in a home that the cellar is dry, or maybe you are thankful that after the Sunday afternoon drive you got home without having a flat tire. People are odd, they take so much for granted.

A hundred boys and girls are going to be happy this week when they board the train Wednesday morning for a trip to Bethlehem . . . yes, the colorful Ne-Ca-Hi band will carry our greetings to the good peoples of Bethlehem when our football lads play the last game of the season Thanksgiving day in that city.

Dr. Irvine, who is retiring from the ministry, will leave soon with Mrs. Irvine for Penny Farms, near Jacksonville, Fla., where they plan to spend the winter.

Beginning Sunday, November 30, the pulpit of the First U. P. church will be occupied by Dr. Addison Leitch, who will continue to serve until a new leader is chosen. Dr. Leitch is a professor of Philosophy and Religious Education in the Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary.

Expect Eight Will Be Cited For Contempt

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(INS)—The House is expected to cite for contempt today eight Hollywood screen writers, a director and a producer for refusing to tell the Un-American Activities committee whether they are Communists.

Overwhelming approval is anticipated for each contempt citation, which directs the U. S. attorney in Washington to initiate grand jury proceedings. Conviction by a federal jury carries maximum penalties of one year in prison and $1,000 fine.

Arrest 11 As White Slavers

IRONTON, O., Nov. 24.—(INS)—Wholesale raids by FBI officers over the weekend were responsible for arrest of 11 persons in Ironton, Columbus and Benld, Ill., on charges of violating the white slave traffic act.

At the same time 36 other persons were arrested by FBI men as material witnesses.

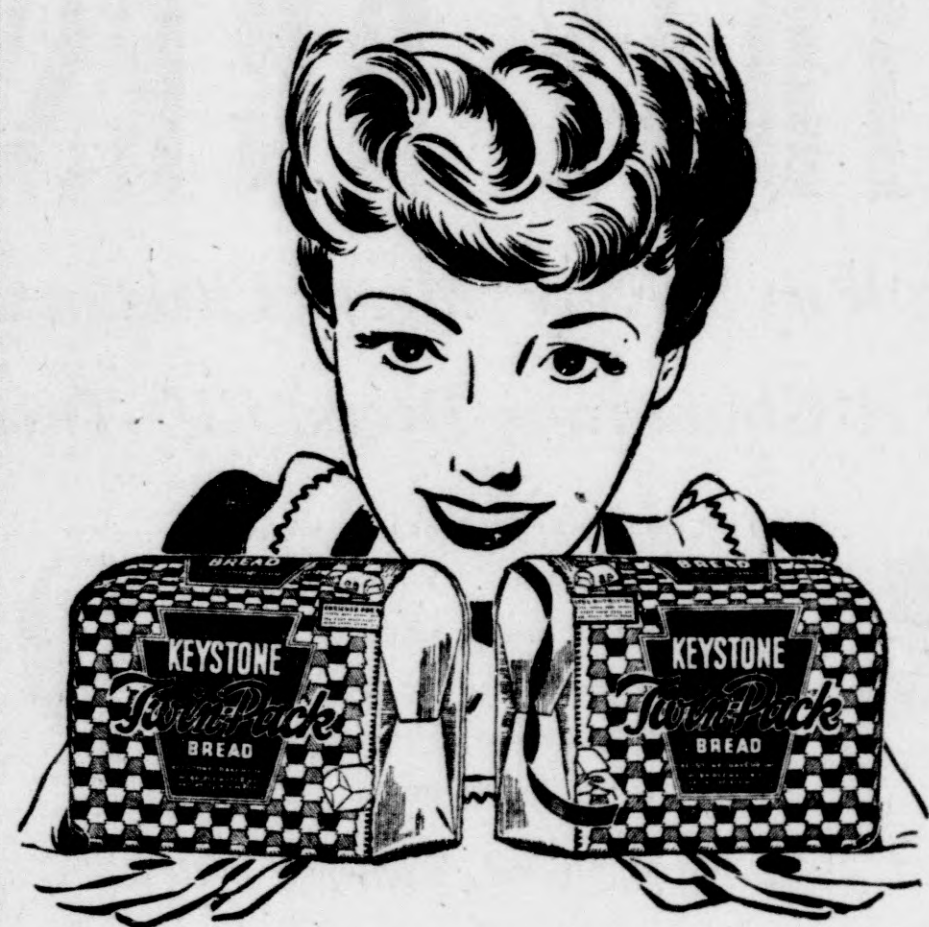

Those arrested were charged with transporting women from West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois to houses of prostitution in Ironton.

The agents reported they had collected a small arsenal of weapons from the various houses raided.

The Pythian Games were the second of four great national festivals of the Greeks, held in the Crissaeon Plain near Delphi. Their origin was attributed to Apollo in celebration of his destruction of the dragon Python.

Here's How You CAN SAVE a Slice (or More) of Bread a Day

LOOK

2 halves in 1 loaf!

American housewives throw away almost 600,000,000 pounds of bread a year.

This extravagance results when the last slice or slices of the unused portion of the loaf dry out and are thrown away.

This waste is appalling in normal times—but especially now, when everyone is so vitally concerned with conserving food, reducing the high cost of living, and patriotically doing their share to help feed starving Europeans.

The solution lies in keeping bread deliciously fresh by protecting the flavor of the bread you don't serve immediately.

This is accomplished with our TWIN-PACK bread—2 halves in 1 loaf—to give you full-loaf value—because TWIN-PACK eliminates stale bread waste.

When you're ready to serve TWIN-PACK, you pull a little handy zipper tab... the loaf divides... and you have one half fresh for immediate use... the other half, with all its fresh, rich, oven-fragrance sealed in for later use... every slice, from first to last, deliciously fresh.

It is this exclusive packaging feature that saves bread, dollars and time by ELIMINATING STALE BREAD WASTE.

So don't waste bread... switch to TWIN-PACK today... on sale at your grocers.

Four Thousand In Plant Tour

Large Crowd Shown
Through United Engineering and Foundry
Co. Plant

Despite the rain of Saturday, the Open House held by the New Castle plant of United Engineering and Foundry was a success. From ten in the morning until four in the afternoon visitors went through the plant and at four thirty when the last went through the total was close to 4000.

From Pittsburgh came President K. C. Gardner, Sr. and Mrs. Gardner, and Vice-President Beard. Many United employees from Pittsburgh and Youngstown came to New Castle for the "Open House" and every part of Lawrence county was represented.

Howard B. Cummings, general superintendent of the plant expressed himself as pleased with the success of the day. "We had a large crowd" said he, "it was spaced out so that we got it through without bunting and there was not the semblance of an accident. We are all pleased at the success of the day."

Flying Visit

A feature of the Open House was an official visit, by air, of officials of the International Association of Machinists. At nine thirty in the morning the IAM official plane landed at the New Castle airport. At the controls was International Vice-President Claude R. Houser, of Durango, Colorado, and with him Alex Skundor of New Castle, representative of the IAM.

The plane came here from Cleveland and was met at the airport by Assistant Superintendent, Frank F. Brooks, Jr., and J. R. Mauthe of the United. Representing Local 1671, the local unit of the IAM were Arsen Armond, Carl Salberg, Joseph Wright and Ray Sarver.

The plane landed and greetings were exchanged and Houser put the plane into the air again. This time a shower of leaflets came from the plane over the city.

These were congratulations of the IAM to the United and to New Castle.

At the plant the visitors were guests of the company and the union. Local 1671 of the IAM is the bargaining agent for the machine shop of United and has been that agent since 1942.

In closing he said, "I shall return with books of knowledge under my arm and the tools of labor upon my shoulder. With the strength and advice of the youth of my country, it shall grow independent and free again."

Guests were present from Pittsburgh, Chicago, West Virginia and Indiana. Mr. Yassine leaves in a few days for Utah where he will study for two years.

Hundreds Seek Sight Of Royal Honeymoon Pair

Crowd Swarms Around Church
Attended By Royal Pair
On Sunday

ROMSEY, Eng., Nov. 24.—(INS)—Several hymn books are missing today from Romsey's 1,000-year-old Abbey and the church's vicar attributed the disappearance to souvenir hunters attracted by the presence of Britain's royal honeymooners.

Crowds of celebrity-conscious persons swarmed about the ancient Abbey yesterday for a glimpse of Princess Elizabeth and her bridegroom—Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh—when the newlyweds attended religious services.

Long after the first public appearance of the honeymooners since their wedding last Thursday, crowds of curious townsfolk milled about the church. Many women lined up, insisting upon a chance to sit in the same seat graced by Elizabeth.

The populace of Romsey, and from other towns as far away as Bournemouth and Southampton, turned out to see the royal couple. Sight-seers hoisted themselves on tombstones in the churchyard, carried boxes, chairs and even step-ladders in the little cemetery. Some even hung from treestops to get a better view.

Hundreds In Village
More than 11,000 persons jammed into Romsey, which has a normal population of 7,000.

Elizabeth and Philip drove up to the Abbey in a large car and quickly took their reserved seats with other worshippers. They joined in the singing of hymns, one of which was the princess's favorite, "Praise My Soul, King of Heaven."

The honeymooners paid strict attention to the service—except once when Philip turned to stare right back at the people staring at them.

Many narcissus blooms have a narcotic effect when their fragrance is inhaled, and the name itself is the Greek word for a sleep-producing drug.

Family Of Nine En Route To City In Bad Smash-Up

En route to this city Saturday evening, from Erie, to visit relatives Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams and their seven children were involved in a head on collision with a truck ten miles south of Meadville on Route 19.

The entire family was hospitalized, with six of the nine remaining at the Meadville City hospital for further treatment. The most seriously injured of the family, was Mr. Adams who suffered a fractured leg and a splintered knee cap. Mrs. Adams received serious facial injuries while the children were injured on other parts of their bodies.

The Adams family left Erie late Saturday afternoon to come to this city to visit Mr. Adams' mother, Mrs. Myrtle Adams, 605 Court street and brothers and sisters in this city. As they approached the truck on the wet slippery highway, the latter vehicle began to skid and a head on collision occurred.

Charles and Jack Adams brothers of the injured man, of this city, visited their brother in the Meadville hospital on Saturday evening and reported that all the crash victims are coming along well, but that Robert would have to undergo an operation on his leg today.

Mortality From Pneumonia Drops

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The mortality from pneumonia and influenza together will very probably be little more than a minor cause of death in the near future, according to the statisticians of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, who report that these diseases dropped about 70 per cent in the past ten years among the company's Industrial policyholders.

Pneumonia and influenza now rank eighth among the causes of death and account for less than 4 per cent of the total mortality among these insured. Only ten years ago these diseases were out-ranked only by heart disease and cancer, and were responsible for ten per cent of the deaths from all causes combined.

Crediting the extensive use of serums and chemotherapy for the decrease in the death rate, the statisticians comment: "In the past decade, declines of more than 70 per cent have been recorded at most age periods among both white males and white females; at ages 25 to 34 the reduction in each sex has been as much as 80 per cent. At no age period up to 75 years has the decrease less than 56 per cent."

THE PARENT PROBLEM

be shared with a playmate until he has proved that he can handle less sturdy ones with gentleness.

Place For Things

4. Have a place where your child can keep the things he has made, however crude they be.

5. Apply these same principles to books. Don't leave a tot with a book till it can be safe with him alone. Also, the tot and older child each should have an easily accessible place for his books. My special list of books from which to read to the baby and young child may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y. Also a list for the child 6-12 to read. Latter list has been revised with the help of Miss Margaret Clark, of the Cleveland Public Library. It contains a number of books which have stood the test of time, as well as some published more recently.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

were descended from Abraham and Sarai (Isaac was born to Sarai). All of this was accomplished according to the direction of the Lord God Almighty. An Angel of the Lord appeared to Hagar and told her:

"I will multiply thy seed exceedingly that shall not be numbered for multitude."

God talked to Abraham directly and told him that he would be the father of many nations, and also—

"I will give thee and thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God."

And the war between the descendants of Abraham started and it has never ceased.

Now Great Britain is ready to relinquish her hold on Palestine and let the Arabs and the Jews go to it. Great Britain is also about to withdraw from Egypt. Such has been the result of the English deserting Churchill and embracing Socialism.

These acts expose the Suez Canal to the East, involve British interests in the oil supplies of the Arabian area and throw the door open to Soviet influence upon the Arabian governments of Iran and Iraq.

How the United Nations will meet the responsibility of all this is a question no one can answer. If the promises of the Lord God Almighty to Hagar and Abraham are going to be kept through all time, the question will never be settled. The Lord said there would always be Jews and there would always be Arabs and the question of what is going to happen in Palestine will be just as hard to answer as what is going to happen in India. The Arabs, or rather the Mohammedans, are in India too, you know.

Man Who Died On Plane Is Listed As 'Dope' Agent

Police Report $800,000 Of Pure
Heroin Found In Possession Of Suspect After Death

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—(INS)—Police today listed Ralph Masey, 45-year-old New Yorker, as the agent—or "mule"—for a large southern California syndicate of dope peddlers after he died aboard a New York-Los Angeles airplane. The police reported they found $800,000 of pure heroin in his possession believed to have been smuggled in from Europe.

Lieut. W. L. Yoakam, of the Narcotics Bureau, said that Masey had "barely caught" the United Airline plane in which he was found yesterday, after changing from another plane in New York.

Died En Route
Masey, who died en route to Los Angeles during the flight yesterday, was shabbily dressed in London and New York clothes.

He appeared to be seriously ill during the last quarter of the flight from New York and received oxygen from Stewardess Pauline Auxier.

Yoakam said: "I am placing a 'conservative' estimate of $800,000 on the pure heroin found on Masey. It would sell here at $2.50 a grain."

Quietism is a type of mysticism which regards the most perfect communion with God as coming only when the soul is in a state of quiet in which it ceases to reason or to reflect either upon itself or upon God, and, in a word, to exercise any of its faculties, its sole function being passively to accept the fellowship which God is every ready to bestow.

Commission Plan Will Change Law

State Commission Would Permit Fiduciaries To Sell Real Estate

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Under a proposal now being considered by the Joint State Government commission, a fiduciary would be permitted to sell real estate. More simply stated it means that a law will be proposed which would permit executors of estates, among other fiduciaries, to sell realty of an estate to settle debts.

Presently an executor may sell real estate. Where claims exist against an estate and there is realty involved, the claim is not good after one year unless suit is started.

Judge W. Walter Braham is a member of the commission and attended this week's meeting. He believes the change to be in the interest of justice. "In all too many cases," said he, "claimants have lost their rights due to ignorance of the legal steps necessary to collect."

Await Decision On Passenger Train Service

GREENVILLE, Pa., Nov. 24. — Pennsylvania Utility Commission is expected to announce its decision soon on a petition involving this company.

The commission is nearly ready to decide if the Pennsylvania Railroad can abandon passenger service as far north as Sharon on its Pittsburgh-Erie division.

Three days of testimony were taken at hearings in Erie and Mercer on this request. The railroad contends that its one-train-each-way service between Pittsburgh and Erie is losing $60,000 annually. If the petition is allowed, Sharpsville, Transfer and Jamestown in Mercer County and other towns in Crawford and Erie counties would be without railroad passenger and express service.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 24. —(INS) —Flame-haired Florence Marly, Hollywood's second charmer from Czechoslovakia, has learned enough English in six weeks to begin her American career, but she still was a worry.

She's starred in movies in her native land, Paris and in Argentina. Now she's co-starred with Academy Award winner Ray Milland in "Sealed Verdict," which Paramount hopes will lift her to the Hollywood heights.

Learning Language

She's been so busy learning her fourth language she has not even had time to meet Czechoslovakia's first gift to glamorland, Vera Ralston, now not only a top Republic star but a citizen as well.

This scribe was the first correspondent to be presented to Miss Marly. She beamed with pleasure when I said I thought she spoke English tres bien beaucoup, a phrase I tossed in lightly to let her know she was among friends.

Likes Hollywood

Like everyone else who lands here, native San Franciscans excepted, she thinks Hollywood is wonderful. Her smooth brow wrinkled, however, at the thought of becoming a permanent resident.

It developed she has a great regard for Paris, where she began her career and won her greatest critical success "as a character so bad I have never looked at myself in it."

"Maybe I could make pictures here, but visit Paris quite often, out?" she said with her intriguing accent.

Lot of Woman

Hollywood's newest director, Jack Gage, is a man who thinks Rosalind Russell is a lot of woman. He's behind the camera in "The Velvet Touch," first production at RKO of Independent Artists, a company organized by Miss Russell, her husband, Fred Brisson, and writer-director Dudley Nichols.

Gage was dialogue director for Roz on "Mourning Becomes Electra," which may win her an academy award, on "Sister Kenny," which won her a nomination, and other pictures.

Keeps Promise

When they were making "Mourning Becomes Electra," Roz promised Jack that when she put "The Velvet Touch" before the cameras he would direct, but at that time the company planned to do another picture first.

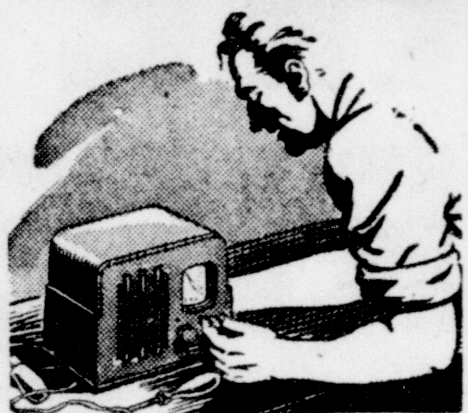

When Jack heard that "The Velvet Touch" would be first, he said to Roz that he assumed she'd engage another director for her first independent production, one with experience.

Replied forthright Miss Russell: "Of course you'll direct it. If I had confidence in you to direct our second picture, I have equal confidence in you to direct our first."

West Ridge Bus Fire-Damaged

Passengers Are Unhurt; Mishap Occurs Near New Wilmington On Saturday Afternoon

West Ridge Transportation bus damaged considerably by fire near the intersection of the Sharon-New Wilmington highways, about 4:35 p. m., Saturday, according to State Police. There were nine passengers on the bus bound for this city from Sharon. No one was injured.

According to the report a motorist rounded the bus and pointed to the rear of the bus. The driver, James Frazier, 896 G street, Meadville, stopped and made an inspection. He discovered smoke in the baggage compartment of the bus.

He unloaded the passengers and with several of them carried water to combat the flames. In the meanwhile the driver put in a telephone call to the New Wilmington fire department which arrived and extinguished the fire.

The passengers were transferred to another bus. A truck from a New Castle garage was procured to tow the bus to this city. It caught fire again. State police happened along and used fire extinguishers to put out the flames after which the bus was brought here, taken to Central fire department where it was well watered.

According to State police, a bare wire caused a short circuit which started both fires. Approximately $1,500 damage was caused.

DRIVER OF MONTH

HARRISBURG, Nov. 24. —(INS) —Pennsylvania's truck driver of the month today was Paul A. Carson, of Altoona, holder of a 32-year-long unblemished over-the-road safety record.

The 46-year-old driver had logged approximately 850,000 miles, according to the Pennsylvania Motor Truck association which supervises the contest to stimulate highway safety.

New Method May Aid State Oil Recovery

By JACK WARD
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—State geologist S. H. Cathcart today said a lowly member of the bacteria family some day may release vast quantities of sand-locked Pennsylvania oil.

Cathcart explained that experiments were being conducted at laboratories in the Bradford oil field to confirm the discovery six years ago that sulfate-reducing bacteria could release "black gold" from artificially prepared oil-bearing sands.

Experiments have been termed "encouraging" but not sufficiently conclusive yet to warrant field tests, he added.

Cathcart explained that ninety per cent of Pennsylvania's estimated three and a half billion barrel oil reserve was not recoverable by present methods.

If the bacterial method of freeing oil from subterranean sands was successful, unestimated quantities previously considered lost could be released, he said.

Tremendous Amount

"There is still a tremendous amount of oil left in Pennsylvania sands," he asserted, "but it will require more extensive use of secondary methods or some new process such as this to recover these vast supplies."

Secondary recovery methods—the chief manner of obtaining oil from Pennsylvania's fields—entail "repressuring of oil sands" to restore energy lost through the release of natural gas from oil pools, he explained.

In the commonwealth's principal producing field at Bradford, water is injected into oil-bearing sands to force the lubricant into the well area, Cathcart said. Natural gas and natural gas mixed with air are used in the central and southern fields, he added.

Pennsylvania oil fields were the oldest in the nation, and recovery costs were "very high," he said. "However, we can afford to spend more to recover Pennsylvania oil because of the large amount of lubricant it contains," Cathcart asserted. "Its lubricant content is the highest of any oil found in the United States."

He said Pennsylvania's 83,000 oil wells annually produce approximately 12,500,000 barrels valued at $80,000,000. Production for the war effort hit a peak in 1944 when more than 14,000,000 barrels of premium oil were recovered, he added.

MANAGE POULTRY TO SAVE FEED

Poultry growers find that they can adjust their business within a certain range to meet the different economic conditions as they arise.

At present the cost of feed is a major economic factor, and the birds must be so managed that best results are obtained from the feed that is consumed by the birds.

Some management practices that help to give birds comfort so that they can get maximum egg production from the feed they eat are listed here:

Allow 3½ to 4 square feet of floor space per layer in the house. There should be about 16 to 20 nests per 100 birds and about 65 feet of roost space. Houses that are constructed and managed to prevent draughts and moisture forming inside the house give the birds more comfort.

Poultry cost account records consistently show that it takes less feed to produce a dozen eggs when hens are laying at a high rate. Rigid culling of both hens and pullets helps to maintain high production records.

More feed fed to fewer birds may produce more eggs than if a larger number of layers are improperly fed. There should be about four inches of mash feeder space per bird, or three 5 or 6-foot feeders per 100 layers. One hundred hens need five to eight gallons of water daily.

One Warehousemen Group Ends Strike

But Kroger Store Still Tied Up
By Strike, Department Store
Deliveries To Resume

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 24.—(INS)—A strike of 700 AFL Warehousemen who had tied up deliveries of four large Pittsburgh department stores was ended today, but at the same time, 49 Kroger grocery stores in the Pittsburgh area were closed by a strike of the same union.

The warehousemen for the department stores agreed to return to work today after being granted a general 15 per cent wage increase, James A. Porter, president of Local 636 of the union said.

Glenn F. Knickerbocker, Pittsburgh branch manager of the Kroger company, said perishable food valued at $200,000 is spoiling in the firm's warehouses. He added 600 non-striking employees had been thrown out of work by the strike.

The warehousemen are asking an hourly pay boost of 17½ cents. The company has offered 15 cents, Knickerbocker said.

J. J. Alexander, YES MAN

I'm SOLD on YOU!

●IN MY BUSINESS, you can't guess—you've got to know. So when I say that I'm sold on local people my statement is based on knowledge.

I know that they are reliable. As manager of this office, I've made hundreds of loans during the past twelve months. A great many of these loans were made on salary alone; others on car or furniture.

I know that folks in this community use common sense in managing their affairs. You'd see what I mean if you could sit in with me on a loan request. My customers use their credit for good, constructive purposes like cleaning up old debts . . . paying taxes . . . putting a son or daughter through school . . . meeting sudden emergencies or taking advantage of a business opportunity.

I Say "YES" To 4 Out of 5

Because I'm sold on the people in our community, I have been able to say "Yes" to 4 out of 5 people who request a loan here. (That's why folks call me the YES MAN.) You see, my company has faith in my judgement. I do not have to consult with a committee. I—and I alone—have the authority to honor your loan request here.

Most times, I can say "Yes" right away. The few times when I can't say "Yes" at once, the customer and I talk it over to see how I can make the loan. You'd be surprised how many times I find a way to say "Yes" to loan requests that others can't or won't consider.

YOU!

With living expenses increasing, many folks find a helpful loan the sensible solution to their money problems. Don't borrow unnecessarily but if—like so many others—a loan is the answer to your problem, don't risk a "no" elsewhere. Phone me . . . or come in and ask for the YES MAN. I'll be grateful for the chance to say "YES" to YOU.

State Capitol
'Rumor Foundry'Many Reports Gain Start At State Capitol, Especially About PoliticsOTHER NEWS OF
STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Nov. 24.—(INS)—The State Capitol is the largest political "rumor foundry" in Pennsylvania and the latest tidbit turned out labels Senate Majority Leader O. J. Tallman as the Republican gubernatorial nominee in 1950 . . . its source undoubtedly was the Lehigh county bloc of jobholders at the Capitol . . . Tallman, a member of the senate since 1939, has political ties with Mrs. Hannah Durham, of Allentown, the most active leader among GOP women and a strong voice in party councils . . . Tallman's candidacy is a question mark but there seemed little doubt about Sen. Weldon B. Heyburn, Delaware Republican . . . Heyburn has been described by one newsmen as "The Heyburn choice in the speculation handicap." A showdown probably would give Tallman the edge at the weights because Heyburn's slate in the last county election was defeated by the faction headed by John J. McClure.

A promotion list posted in state police headquarters contained two significant changes . . . Privates Thomas Cullen and Jack Smith were given the rank of detectives and assigned to the executive mansion . . . both men have been chauffeurs for Governor Duff . . . they joined the force about a decade ago.

A private roadbuilder won a contract from the state highways department only to learn he had failed to include about $500,000 for concrete work . . . he forfeited his $100,000 bond . . . on a re-advertisement he won the contract again with the lowest bid . . . it was $600,000 higher than his initial estimate, a sum equalling the forfeited bond and financial error.

Sen. Joseph M. Barr, of Pittsburgh, was considered the leading potential candidate for Democratic state chairman to be selected when the minority party reorganizes next May. Party leaders contended the 41-year-old insurance salesman could have the job without opposition if he wanted it . . . he has been a faithful party worker for many years under the direction of Pittsburgh's Mayor David L. Lawrence who resigned the state chairmanship following his election two years ago . . . J. Warren Mickle, of Harrisburg, was elevated from secretary to chairman in a compromise election, but Lawrence has retained what party direction remained in the state . . . Barr has been a member of the senate since 1940 and active in the young Democrats for many years.

Some party members claimed it was Lawrence's intention to name Barr as his successor while others insisted Col. Philip Mathews, of Carlisle, a party financier, was his choice . . . Lawrence's candidate, whoever it was, was blocked by the then influential U. S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey . . . Guffey's defeat in 1946 broke his power . . . the consensus among party speculators was that Barr would not be interested in the job, partly because it would take him away from party work in Allegheny county, now controlled by Democrats and partly because there was no financial incentive connected with the chairmanship . . . the post carried no salary, but chairmen usually have been placed on state payrolls in the treasurer's or auditor general's departments, held by Democrats.

The Pennsylvania Federation of Labor's attack on Republican cong. Louis E. Graham 25th (Beaver-Butler-Lawrence) district reportedly has prompted GOP leaders to hunt for another candidate for the seat next year . . . Graham, who has been elected five times, was denounced by the State AFL organization as unfriendly to labor.

St. Distaff's Day is Jan. 7. It was called so because the Christmas festivities terminate on the "Twelfth Day", and on the following day the women used to return to their distaffs or daily occupations.

Probe Death Of Young Honeymoon Couple In Auto

Bellevue Man And Young Bride Of Less Than 48 Hours Found Dead In Parked Car

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 24.—(INS)—Friends and relatives of a honeymooning couple today were attempting to determine a motive for their apparent suicide pact less than 48 hours after their sudden marriage.

The bodies of Bridges M. Pittard, 24, and his 21-year-old bride, the former Helen Grove Brown, both of suburban Bellevue, were found in their car, parked near a lonely graveyard five miles from Greensburg, Pa., Sunday morning.

Monoxide Poisoning
Death was due to carbon monoxide poisoning. State police said a hose had been attached to the exhaust pipe and had been run through a rear window.

Police were investigating the sudden change in the young couple's wedding plans in a search for a possible motive for the suicide pact. They had made arrangements for the wedding Saturday in a Bellevue church, but instead were married Friday night by a Pittsburgh alderman, and left Saturday on their honeymoon.

Auto Accidents Take Three Lives

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 24.—(INS)—Three week-end auto accidents, two of them involving hit and run drivers, claimed three lives in Pittsburgh, the coroner's office reported today.

The body of Austin J. O'Connor, 73, of (542 Grandview avenue), East Pittsburgh, was found on the highway near the Westinghouse bridge last Sunday, one apparent hit-run victim.

Joseph Jendrasak, 60, of Wildwood, was killed while walking along a highway near his home early Sunday, another hit-run victim.

Albert Parker, 26, was killed, and Robert C. Leonard, 26, critically injured Saturday when a truck driven by Parker crashed into a utility pole in Pittsburgh. Both are Pittsburgh residents.

Aviation Men
In U. S. WorriedBad Weather Approach Recalls Crashes That Occurred Last YearOTHER NEWS OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special To Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Federal and aviation industry officials are plainly worried as winter's foul weather, which resulted in a rash of crashes a year ago, comes whistling round the corner.

Many safety aids have been installed since last year, but the situation is still fraught with peril. Last winter almost broke the airlines. They lost about 25 million dollars in cancellations as accidents drove passengers to the railroads. This traffic was not won back until mid-summer.

The government's instrument landing system has been installed at about 50 airports and some progress has been made on approach lighting. However, developments promised to assure reliable all-weather flying are still in the future.

Some reasons for this are: Government reluctance to permit use of ground-controlled approach, a landing system competing with the federal ILS system. Lack of congressional appropriations for additional safety aids. Opposition of the railroads to federal financing of safety aids for one mode of transportation at the expense of another.

Stumper

Scientists are plagued with one of the most important problems of atomic energy since atomic power was discovered—what to do with radioactive waste?

So far, they've studied numerous methods of disposal, but no way has been found to get rid of the potential menace.

Radioactive waste can't be placed in the ground, ocean, air or, apparently, any other place without becoming a threat to human life many years hence.

The reason is that radioactivity remains for years and the problem is to dispose of these atoms so that they will be sealed forever. Scientists have examined many types of cylinders. So far they have found none that they feel will withstand the test of time. Any cylinder that corrodes and eventually breaks apart poses dangers for future generations no matter where it may be placed.

Red Toast

Newsman covering the Russian embassy's reception in honor of the October revolution which boosted Lenin to power chortled over a Soviet army officer's subterfuge.

Vodka and other alcohol flowed freely but the party was progressing dully. Then came the time for an all-toast to "The Revolution." The burly officer sidled up to a bartender with an empty glass. A brief conversation ensued. The bartender filled the glass with a sparkling liquid and returned it.

Came the toast. The Red officer downed the contents of his glass at a gulp and without a shudder. Probably for the first time the Revolution had been toasted in plain water.

No Rent Runaway

Landlords and tenants can expect renewal of rent control beyond March 1, perhaps for a full year. The temper of Congress appears to indicate extension of controls. In view of the alarming price spiral.

Chief irritant to congressmen, facing an election year, is the sentiment certain to be felt by tenants who agreed to "voluntary" increases in order to get long-term leases under terms of the current extension.

Best bet is that some general increase will be allowed.

Rankin Out?

The fiercest congressional advocate of "white supremacy" appears to be on the way out. Political observers believe that the dismal showing of Rep. John Rankin of Mississippi in the recent election to fill the Senate seat of Theodore Bilbo portends his defeat in the 1948 general election.

Rankin, whose constituents have returned him to Congress 11 times, lost even the counties he represents in the senatorial contest where he ran fifth in a field of five.

HOME ACCIDENTS
CLAIM TWO LIVES

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 24.—(INS)—The Allegheny County Morgue today reported the deaths of two persons from accidents in their homes.

Ray Bender, 45, of 408 N. State street, Clairton, died Sunday of a broken neck suffered when he fell down a flight of stairs at his home.

William Seegmiller, 76, of Bellevue, died when he fell in his home while dressing.

The Methodist church and Christian church will have a union Thanksgiving service in the Methodist church Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Henry Koch, pastor of the Christian church, will be the speaker for the Thanksgiving service. Special music and singing will be presented from both churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nelson of New Castle and Mrs. J. H. Biddle of Norwalk, O., were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Biddle.

Jacob Lease of Baden was a Wednesday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schock.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Sebring, O., for the late William D. St. John, aged 77, former resident of Enon Valley and retired railroad worker. Mr. St. John died at his home in Beloit, O., last Wednesday afternoon.

Interment took place in Little Beaver cemetery near Enon. The deceased left one son and three daughters, including Mrs. James Grimes of Darlington.

SICK!

STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS
and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids, Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite, Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Drugless Health!

NO MATTER how long you have been suffering from stomach, kidney and rheumatic distress, and what drugs you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you take GEO-MINERAL. With your eyes SEE the results seven days after you start taking it.

DRUGGISTS, Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil, ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Mineral Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece, where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your eliminations from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. Military Order Of Cooties Make Hospital Visits

Consistency is the thing that counts in good works. And the Military Order of Cooties is consistent in its work of visiting veterans' hospitals, providing entertainment, candy, chewing gum and other little courtesies for the veterans who are hospitalized.

On Sunday a group of local Cooties made the trip to North Warren, Pa., to the hospital there and took with them candy, chewing gum and cigarettes for the vets. At the same time, another group visited Deesh hospital near Butler.

The Cooties here have been doing this work for over a year and their program includes a continuance of it. Up to now they have spent their own money and time.
Because the program is being expanded the Cooties are giving the citizens an opportunity to get a piece of the satisfaction of helping,
by contributing money to their fund.

Presently, plans are being worked out for special events at Deshon for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

FARMERS ASKED TO PLANT NINE MILLION MORE ACRES IN U. S.

This year's meat production totaled twenty-three billion pounds which permitted a per capita consumption of about 156 pounds. Anderson has warned there will be a meat shortage in 1948.

Anderson pointed out that continued top farm output "will mean an inevitably heavy drain on our already-strained soil resources." But, he said that this is necessary if the U. S. is to aid world recovery.

The goals set by the agriculture secretary call for the planting next year of 92 million 120 thousand acres of corn, which this year was seeded on slightly more than 86 million acres.

The 1948 wheat goal was set at 75 million acres as compared with this year's indicated planting of 77 million acres. The slight drop in wheat acreage would be offset by increased planting of oats, barley, rye and sorghum grains.

Illustrious Potentate Here

At the Shriner's dinner Saturday evening in the Castleton hotel, future.

The view prevails in some diplomatic quarters, however, that Russia will not agree to any final settlement of the Austrian problem until some understanding has been reached concerning Germany.

If this proves to be the case,
there is little hope of any agreement being reached on Austria at this conference.

New evidence that Moscow considered the Austrian problem tied up with Germany is seen in the proposed Soviet agenda for the conference.

Wherry is a member, launched its own inventory of foodstuffs available for shipment to Europe under the pending authorization.

To Call Anderson
The committee headed by Sen.
Bridges (R) N. H., called agriculture Secretary Anderson as its first witness. Bridges announced in advance that his group wants to be sure the American people are "not short changed" by the European aid program.

Wherry said he favored feeding hungry people in Europe but wants to make sure the supplies will be properly used. He said:

"I want to make certain that this money is not going to be used for paternalistic purposes of a government that is going to go to the left. There must be adequate guarantees that aid will not be used for non-democratic politics."

The measure reported unanimously by Vandenberg's committee provides that President Truman may terminate the program whenever he finds "by reason of changed conditions" that assistance is no longer "necessary or desirable."

of wartime procurement is "exposed to public view."

Secret hearings are planned as soon as the investigators secure their evidence. Ferguson said that "the American people want to know what happened to all the money spent on war contracts."

Meyers, who was labeled a "rotten apple" by Gen. H. H. Arnold, retired air forces commander, faces possible indictment on charges of income tax evasion, war fraud, perjury, subordination of perjury, bribery, extortion and conspiracy to defraud.

Conviction on all seven charges would mean exceeding $650,000
and 39 years in prison.

A Justice Department spokesman said that indictments also may be sought against Meyers' wartime associates.

YOUTH DIES FROM CRASH OF CYCLE

had purchased the motorcycle in Florida, and following his discharge from service on November 18, had ridden it home, arriving here early Friday, from Green Cove Springs, Fla.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Fred C. Leply, the former of whom is a well known B. and O.
conductor. He was born on November 26, 1927, and would have been 20 years of age on Wednesday. He was graduated from New Castle High school in the class of 1945, and enlisted for service in the U. S. Navy on January 5, 1946, where he served as electrician's
mate, 3rd class.

Besides his parents, he leaves
two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, and Mrs. Evelyn Mason, of this city.

The body was removed to the George E. Nickerson Funeral Home and prepared for burial, being taken to the family residence today, where friends are being received.

He was a member of St. Margaret's church, from whence funeral services will be conducted at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, with
Rev. Fr. James Kernan officiating.

The site of the present building of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, was occupied about 610 by a Christian church, probably of wood,
which was destroyed by fire in 1087.

operating the city has increased,
and right now the city needs $140-000, for estimated expenditures for 1948.

It had been council's intention to keep the millage at 13 mills, but after days of figuring, they have come to a decision that a payroll tax is their only way out of the situation.

Purpose Of Payroll Tax

The resolution calls for four weeks notice to adopt the ordinance.

In setting the payroll millage,
the resolution prescribes:
"A tax on all wages, salary, and compensation earned or paid within the city by persons employed for themselves or by others, or engaged in occupations, or business, of seven and one-half mills, which rate of taxation, expressed in dollars and cents amounts to three-fourths of one percent of the value of all such wages, salaries, and compensation so earned or paid within the said city, or seventy-five cents on every one hundred dollars of such valuation."

Council will not set the tax millage for the city until after the supreme court hands down a decision as to the legality of a payroll tax.

ures to meet our export program
and bring about needed adjustments in the use of grain. We have no wish to go through another period of emergency controls.

May Not Get Job Done

"But we must face realistically
the facts of the current and prospective situation. These facts indicate that the allocation powers
... may not get the job done. To insure the maximum savings of grain and at the same time combat inflation, authority for rationing and price ceiling should be provided."

Farrington said provision also should be made for use of the allocation powers on "other commodities and facilities" when such action is found necessary in the interest of national defense, foreign policy, and public health, safety and welfare.

He asked for authority "similar to those contained in the second war powers act" and said:
"In some cases rationing and price control would be necessary to afford the necessary protection to our own economy."

His views were given to a committee overwhelmingly opposed to all-out price control and partially on record in favor of stand-by meat rationing and other emergency measures.

Shenango Hi Stripped Of Top Cage Material

Ronnie Johns Only Returning Member Of Last Year's Starting Quint; Coach Nahas Seans Reserves To Fill Posts; Open With Ellwood Dec. 5.

Only forward Ronnie Johns remains of the Shenango high school cage five of last year—tri-county champs two seasons running. Gone are Don Mayberry, all-county center, now in livery at Westminster college, Johnny Cochran, and Julian Owoc, Chuck McGary, guards, and Frank Shoaff, forward.

The only other lad who saw considerable action back for this campaign is Don Zeigler, five feet, seven inches, and a forward. Have Tough Opener

The "Wildcats" will open against Ellwood City on their home boards, a tough lid-lifter, and the search is on for capable lads to man the starting berths. Nahas launched practice November 17. Members of last year's reserve team reporting were Harry Zurasky, Bill Tanner, Tom McGary, Marty Bayuk, Walt Zurem, and Chuck Doss. Newcomers to the squad are John Braatz, Dan Ehrhart, Chuck Rhodes, Bob Mielcunsky, Lew Matthews, Bill Lepisto, Joe Dado, Stan Watkins, Paul McClimans, Jackie White, Al Baker, Ed. McCovin, Ray Spezza, Joe Marrone and Lloyd Fomelle.

Prospects Glum
"We'll try to make it tough for all our opponents," said Nahas, "and we'll shoot higher than fourth or fifth in the league." Following the Ellwood game the 'Cats will meet Freedom, December 9, at home, Midland, December 12, away, Plaingrove, December 16, home, Mercer, December 19, away, and Plaingrove again, December 26, away.

The loop opener is against Mt. Jackson, January 6, away.

RED WINGS TAKE HOCKEY LEADERSHIP

(International News Service)
Detroit's Red Wings proudly perched on the top rung of the National Hockey league ladder today after running up a 9-3 win over the Chicago Black Hawks last night.

With Rookie Jim McFadden racking up five assists, the Red Wings took first place away from the idle Toronto Maple Leafs.

Boston's Bruins tied Toronto for second place by gaining a 2-2 tie with the Montreal Canadiens.

CHUCK WING LOST FOR BIG CONTEST

New Castle high school will be without the services of Chuck Wing, 202-lb. senior tackle for the game with Bethlehem Thanksgiving Day. The husky lineman snapped a bone in his ankle in scrimmage. His loss will hurt the Hurricane's chances in the holiday classic.

Junior Church League Results

Twelve Junior Church League games were played Saturday, at the Y.M.C.A. The results were as follows: First U. P. 55; St. Paul 17; St. George 24; First Baptist 23; First Methodist 37; First Christian 23; S. S. Alliance 39; Epworth 25; Trinity 29; First Presbyterian 25; Croton 27; Third U. P. 11.

Bears Undecided On Thursday Opponents

William Domenick, president of the Wabash Bears, semi-pro griders, announced today that there will be a game at the stadium Thanksgiving Day, but just who the opponents will be is undecided at the moment. "Every effort is being made to schedule the Ellwood City Trojans for a return game," Domenick said.

If Ellwood turns down the Turkey Day classic, it may be the Alliance Aviators who will oppose the rough and ready Bears.

Canton Five Scalps Oklahoma Indians In Arena Battle 57-48

The Canton Cushites, famous Negro pro basketball team, reversed the procedure Sunday at the Arena floor, and scalped the touring Oklahoma Indians 57 to 48, before a fair sized crowd. Usually the redmen are on the tomahawk end of the scalp, but this was a 1947 version.

In the preliminary game the City-County floor league got underway with the East Brook Boosters trimming the VFW No. 315 Post team, 37 to 26 in a well played contest.

Detroit Clowns Here Next
It was announced by Arena owner Stanley Shaw, that next Sunday the Canton Cushites will play the famous Detroit Clowns featuring in the lineup Gil "Tiny" Reichert, 7 feet 6 inches and weighing 280 pounds, the tallest basketball player in the world. The Detroit team was fourth in scoring with 8 points, with Flying Dutch having 12, to be third high Indian score.

In the preliminary next Sunday the Bessemer Legion will play the New Castle Eagles club team, in a city-county league tilt, at 3:30 o'clock. This game will count in the loop standing.

Canton Leads All Way
The Indians had a good basketball team, but lacked the height to cope with the tall, clever Cushites, and trailed the entire game—11 to 7 at the first period, 30 to 23 at the half, 47 to 40 the third period. Woe Willie Smith of the Cushites led the scoring with 19 points, followed by Joe Wilder with 14 points. The entire Cushite team figured in the scoring with a well-balanced team. The Cushites at times put on some ready comedy.

Thunder Bull led the Indians in point making with 14, followed by Fleetfoot with 12. Yellow Pony was fourth in scoring with 8 points, with Flying Dutch having 12, to be third high Indian score.

Boosters Look Good
The East Brook Boosters led by Chuck Jamison with 20 of the points defeated the VFW team in a good preliminary City-County league battle 37 to 26 that opened the league play.

East Brook led at the half, 11 to 8. Jamison, Clark and Morrow were the East Brook standouts. The Boosters are coached by the veteran Marvin Kuth. In the Vets lineup the playing of Lloyd Spears, and Sam Galanski was the best, with 14 of the points between them.

Both teams showed a lack of practice, and will develop into strong teams as the season progresses.

St. Marys Champs Of Grade Schools

St. Marys griders have been crowned the champions of the city's grade school league with a 7-0 win over the St. Joseph team.

Members of the Lawrence County Sportsman's Association are keyed to a high pitch of expectancy today because their annual Turkey shoot takes place at 7 p. m. Tuesday, at their farm, near Harbor bridge.

Top Teams Jolted In Surprise Games

Bears Slaughter Steelers To Move Into Tie With Cards; Eagles Lose; Cleveland Makes Great Comeback To Tie Yanks In 28 Thriller.

The mighty of the two professional football leagues fell like ducks in a bowling alley Sunday as upsets rocked both circuits. Chicago's big, bad Bears moved into a tie for the western division lead of the NFL by slaughtering the Pittsburgh Steelers, 49-7, with ancient Sid Luckman having one of his big afternoons at tossing the leather. An early injury to Johnny Clement, with the Sutherland team touchdown-bound, hurt the invaders' chances.

The Bears' ascension was made possible by the Chicago Cardinals' stumble against the Washington Redskins. Another old-timer of the loop, Sammy Baugh, unlimbered his pitching arm to complete 25 out of 33 passes in the 45-21 rout. His six TD tosses were only one shy of Luckman's all-time record.

Packers Tied
The Green Bay Packers, who were supposed to have a soft touch in the winless Giants, found the score knotted at 24-all at the end of a long afternoon. Only a last quarter rally saved the Packers from defeat.

The biggest reverberation was in Boston where the weak Yankees slapped down the Philadelphia Eagles, 21-14. This loss prevented the Neale crew from wresting the eastern lead from the Steelers. "Boley" Danciewicz flipped two scoring passes to seal the win.

On the coast the Los Angeles Rams steamed past the Detroit Lions with Tommy Harmon playing once one of his greatest pro games. The ex-Michigan ace had two pay-dirt gallops, one of 88 yards.

Cleveland In Tie
Trailing 28-0 at halftime and evidently in for one of their rare beatings, the Cleveland Browns turned the tables in the last half to pull even with the New York Yankees in a 28-28 thriller before the largest crowd to ever see a pro encounter in the metropolis. After piling up their big edge on the running of Spec Sanders and Buddy Young, the Yanks faded before the ace marksmanship of Otto Graham, whose belated passing notched the deadlock. Charley O'Rourke's aerial wizardry and the field-goal kicking of Ben Agajanian, helped the Los Angeles Dons top the Brooklyn Dodgers, 16-12.

Meanwhile the Buffalo Bills warmed up to their all-important showdown with the Yanks this coming week with a 33-14 romp over the hapless Baltimore Colts. The victory left the Bills only a pace off the eastern lead. The Bills tallied in every period, to win handily.

Two League Games Wednesday Night

There will be two games at the Arena floor Wednesday in the City-County league, it was announced by Secretary Stan Shaw. The first game at 7:30 o'clock will find the Johnson Bronze playing the Bessemer Legion and the second game at 9 o'clock will see the Shenango "Y" tangling with the Forest A. C. team.

The admission is 25 cents for the balcony seats and 50 cents for the first floor. There is considerable interest being displayed in the league and each team has a fine following. The league got under way yesterday with the East Brook Boosters trimming the VFW team 37 to 26.

Unknown Back Makes Mid-West All-Star Team

Charles Schoenherr Of Wheaton Picked By INS For College Array

By CHARLES EINHORN (International News Service Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—An unknown, 21-year-old fullback from Wheaton college joined ten mighty college craftsmen—including three each from those unbeaten titans, Michigan and Notre Dame—in forming International News Service's All-Midwest football team for 1947.

The team, issued today after words with coaches and experts from the busy vales of Ohio to the Iowa farmlands, boasted a backfield that few dream teams can boast, if only for the fact that it comprised a fullback, two halfbacks and a quarterback!

The quarterback, of course, was Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame. The halfbacks weren't hard to select either—they're Michigan's tornado twosome, Bob Chappuis and Chalmers "Bump" Elliott.

And the fullback was young Charles Schoenherr of Wheaton college, whose 1947 doings included, almost incidentally, the scoring of 115 points!

The line was solid stuff from Illinois' rambunctious Ike Owens at one end to Michigan's stickum-fingered Bob Mann at the other.

International News Service's All-Midwest football team for 1947:

First Team
Ends—Owens, Illinois; Mann, Michigan
Tackles—O'Reilly, Purdue; Czarowski, Notre Dame
Guards—Nomellini, Minnesota; Fischer, Notre Dame
Center—Wilson, Wisconsin
Backs—Lujack, Notre Dame; Chappuis, Michigan; Elliott, Michigan; Schoenherr, Wheaton.

Second Team
Ends—Ford, Michigan; Jacot, Cornell (Iowa)
Tackles—Agase, Illinois; Connor, Notre Dame
Guards—Brown, Indiana; Buck, Coe
Center—Levanti, Illinois
Backs—Zulborski, Purdue; Stephens, Cincinnati; Kurkowski, Detroit; Steger, Illinois.
